

MENDOCINO HERITAGE DAYS EVENTS
offered by
Fort Bragg Mendocino Coast Historical Society and the
Guest House Museum

College of the Redwoods and Fort Bragg Mendocino Coast Historical Society offer five classes in Local History during Mendocino Heritage Days this year. Classes begin April 23 in the Fort Bragg Library Community Room, 10:30-11:30.

The schedule of Local History classes is:

- April 23 "Uncovering Our Past" by Russ Bartley
- April 30 "Conserving Local History" by Russ Bartley
- May 7 "1833 – John Work on the North Coast" by Sylvia Bartley
- May 14 "Climate Change on the Mendocino Coast" by Walt McKeown
- May 21 "Our Mud Volcanoes" Field Trip led by Denise Stenberg

✦ Register with College of the Redwoods, Fee, $10.

Historic Guided Walks in Downtown Fort Bragg • May 1, 8, 15, and 22.

Meet at the Guest House Museum, 343 N Main St. at 10 am for a 1 ½ hour walk. Betty Carr, David Foucheaux and Denise Stenberg will lead you. Donation, $5.

Night Walks in Downtown Fort Bragg • May 7 and 15 at 7 pm. Meet at the Guest House, 343 N Main St. Derek Hoyle will lead you. Donation, $5.

Cemetery Walks in the Rose Memorial Park, east off N. Franklin on Spruce St. • David Foucheaux will lead on May 9 and 23 at 2 pm for 1 ½ hours. Donation, $5.

May 15 at 2 pm • Michael Stenberg will trace the History of the California Western Railroad in the Railroad Room at the Guest House Museum, 343 N Main St.

Our Marine Room, with exhibits of lumber shipping days and the fishing industry will reopen May 1, 2010.